In-Office Imaging Solutions

Want a way to offer your patients better service?

Is your practice referring patients out for diagnostic testing?

Why not keep those referrals "in-house", therefore providing your patients with instant access to the imaging they need, while enhancing your revenue

Why send that money out the door

when you could have your own Radiology department?

Accuro will walk you through the process of setting up your own scanner as a legal "In-Office ancillary" service. Accuro can also provide consultation on Stark Law implications, a feasibility study, management of operations, equipment used or new, supplies, service, etc. Accuro will be all you need for implementing diagnostic imaging equipment as an ancillary service at your office.

We will handle all costs related to starting up a new service for you. All your practice will be obligated to is to pay a single monthly lease payment that is tailored to your budget and needs.

At Accuro, we will strive to help you implement an "In-Office" imaging department at your practice. We will gather info about your practice to help evaluate how feasible an "In-House" imaging system would be for your practice. If it is established that your practice could benefit from it's own "In-House" system, we will begin implementation of the correct system for your budget.

flexible solutions for your practice needs

HASSLE FREE MANAGEMENT

From feasibility to operations we will be there. Within our service we will handle Siting, Equipment, Equipment Maintenance, Hiring of techs, Radiology Reads, billing, PACS implementation, and day to day operations that the new service would require. We also have all the paperwork that is needed for a proper efficient running Ancillary service. It would be a 'turn-key' deal for your practice. Of course your practice could pick and choose what options they would like to utilize with those services.

"IN-OFFICE" BENEFITS

The benefits of having an "In-Office" Ancillary service are many, but a few are, Increased convenience for your patients, rapid results on MR studies that are done, increased revenue stream, increased referral base, and cutting edge technology available to those referrers.

CUSTOM SOLUTIONS

We tailor all solutions to each individual practice, and it's current and future needs in mind. This will help in the start-up phases of the project

WEB SOLUTIONS

You can access all documents you will need for your Ancillary service via our website. You will also be able to access patient images and reports via our HIPAA Approved web portal.

SUPPORT SOLUTIONS

Continuing support is offered on projects. We supply maintenance, billing support, radiological reads, regulation guidance, PACS support, and general management support.

HOW CAN WE HELP YOUR PRACTICE?

At Accuro we strive to help our clients achieve a smooth running Ancillary service, that produces results.
